

To Whom it May Concern,

Please abandon this effort to undermine the state laws restricting tele-marketers ability to invade my home. I chose to be on the "NO Call" list. It is my choice not to have to turn down the opportunity to purchase a product that I did not show interest in purchasing in the first place.

Before adding my name to the list we received an average of 15 calls per week, all in the evening hours. We are now able to have a quiet family time in the evenings without intrusive marketers.

Our state law has improved my family life. Please do not lessen its strength by allowing these people to intrude into my home again.

It is not a Constitutional issue. I am not asking that their "free
